

Our Mission

To offer comprehensive services that empower people to discover their potential, develop a career path and engage in community life.

Safeway hires people with special needs for several reasons. We recognize that everyone has some ability and skills that match the jobs we have. Safeway benefits because employees with special needs are extremely dependable.

– Bob Schroder, Store Manager
Silver Lake Safeway

CTC has been working with our store for over 10 years. Sunrise assists with training on a one-on-one basis which we don't have the hours to provide. I thank CTC for all the hard work they've put into our store.

Our Partnerships

Sunrise Community Trades & Careers connects local businesses with the traditionally under-employed population. These partnerships make for a stronger community. We work closely with businesses, agencies, and individuals to ensure that all participants benefit to the highest degree possible.

We partner with local businesses to provide employment solutions. Our free services include:

- On-site job needs analysis
- Applicant recruitment and screening
- On-the-job training assistance
- Employee-employer relationship building and follow up support

We also partner with local agencies and their clients to provide employment options. Services include:

- Pre-employment preparation
- Employment research and job matching
- Job retention services
- Consultation as needed

Agencies include Human Services Departments (Snohomish, King, and Skagit County), Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, North Sound Mental Health Administration, Department of Social & Health Services and others.

Sunrise, Your Partner

Collectively, our professional staff has over 126 years experience consulting and providing employment services. Most hold professional degrees and all have a broad experience base in the field of employment.

...it's good for communities.

CTC advocates for an economically strong and safe community. Employment is the key to that strength and stability.

Since 1983, our focus has been providing outreach and services to traditionally under-employed populations within our local communities, including people with disabilities, the economically disadvantaged, and youth transitioning from high school to work.
