My home care aide goes beyond her call of duty at every given moment. I would like to see more people like her in this line of work. She is always there when I need her. I would like to see her get employee of the month, for many reasons. She is always speaking very highly of Sunrise. I know she is loyal to you and her clients. She says she would not ever work for another agency. I know she has been working for you a long time. Maybe give her a raise, she deserves one for all her hard work. I would never want anyone else working for me. Ann, Darrington client
